It is little wonder that the velee of the people is heard in loud and enthusiastle praise of the new treatment. It is curing catarrh. It is curing old and obstinate stomach disenses. It is curing catarrhal bronchitis, often called incipient consumption, etc. It is curing many cases of a stimm and dearness. It is curing all diseases of a catarrhal nature or origin.

Every patient who is receiving the treatment is an enthusiastic advertiser of it and brings in new patients. Feople from all over Nebraska and the surrounding states are making inquiries for it and giving it a preliminary trial. Dectors are semiling in patients that they admit themselves cannot be cured except by this improved method.

Walling Jury is Charged. NEWPORT, Ky., June 15.-In the Walling rial today Mr. Shepherd corrected his testimony of Saturday, saying that it was February 15, instead of February 7, that he examined the Heider hotel register and found Walling's name. The charge to the jury was nearly as in the case of Jackson.
